
Newfoundland News

SPRINGDALE ST., ST. JOHN'S — LT.-COLONEL J. S. BLADIN — SUB-TERRITORIAL COMMANDER

ONE WEEK'S CATCH

Forty-Six Souls for Salvation and Consecration

DEER LAKE (Commandant and Mrs. Oake, Captain Pretty)—A week of Power and Glory has been experienced by this Corps. The Spirit of God is working wonders in our midst. Men and women are thinking about God and believing on Him to the saving of their souls. Beautiful scenes of conversion are taking place. Forty-six souls have been won for the Master during the past week. The end is not yet. We are believing that ere this report is in print more souls will be added to the Church of God. Glory to God!—H. Dicks, Corps Sergeant-Major.

NINE SOLDIERS ENROLLED

CORNER BROOK (Commandant and Mrs. Lodge, Captain Pye)—Last Sunday night nine comrades took their stand as Soldiers of The Army. After the enrolment ceremony a short testimony meeting was enjoyed. The message found its way to the sinner's heart, and seekers found pardon from their sins.—G.B.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER

Rejoice Together at Mercy-Seat

CARBONEAR (Adjutant and Mrs. Eason, Lieutenant Rogers)—The Soldiers and converts are seeking to make the "Regions Beyond" Campaign the best ever. In the Soldiers' meeting, on Tuesday last, six comrades gave themselves afresh to God. On Candidates' Sunday the Candidates took active part. A spirit of deep earnestness was evident throughout, and at the conclusion fourteen seekers found their way to the Mercy-seat. Among them were a mother and daughter, who rejoiced together in knowing their sins were forgiven. This makes a total of over forty souls since the beginning of the Campaign.—Undaunted.

HALF-NIGHT OF PRAYER

Precedes Glorious Soul-Saving Victories

BONAVISTA (Commandant and Mrs. Woodland)—On a recent Tuesday night a Consecration service was conducted and we experienced a wonderful outpouring of the Spirit. On Thursday a half-night of prayer was held, which was a season of much inspiration and blessing. Since then services have been conducted every night and eighteen souls have found pardon.—B.R.

The Soldiers are full of appreciation for the way Captain Rowe, the day school teacher, also Sergeant-Major Estell and other comrades so nobly kept God's work moving along during the seven weeks Commandant and Mrs. Woodland were quarantined owing to their childrens' illness. Bonavista comrades are making great strides in the "Regions Beyond" Campaign.

A DAUNTLESS ENTHUSIAST

(Continued from page 4)

the long years of their united and devoted service.

Two children are carrying on the traditions of the parents in The Army, one being an Officer-daughter, Captain Lucretia, of Territorial Headquarters, the other, Primary-Leader Ethel, a Soldier of the Toronto Temple Corps.

Comrades throughout the Territory unite in paying high tribute to the excellent service of Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. Jennings during their forty-three years of Officership, and pray that God's blessing may rest gloriously upon them in their well-earned Retirement years.

Grand Falls Comes of Age

Sub-Territorial Leader Conducts Anniversary Services—Also Visits Corner Brook, Botwood, Bishop's Falls, Humbermouth and Deer Lake

THE Sub-Territorial Commander, accompanied by Staff-Captain Cornick, has just completed a tour of the Grand Falls and Corner Brook Districts.

At Grand Falls the Colonel gave a lecture, "Fragments from France." Through the courtesy of Mayor Cooper, Commandant Marsh, the Commanding Officer, had secured the Town Hall for the occasion. The Mayor, who was an Officer during the war, was supported by some distinguished war veterans. The audience was keenly interested and most appreciative.

At Botwood (Ensign and Mrs. Winsor) the Citadel was crowded. The Rev. W. Woolfrey, a war veteran, presided. Mr. Aitken, J.P., proposed a vote of thanks to the Colonel for the splendid lecture.

At Bishop's Falls a big Salvation meeting was conducted. The Bandsmen and Soldiers turned out in good force, and a bright meeting ensued. The Colonel gave a telling address, and two souls were found at the Cross. Commandant and Mrs. Cole, the Corps Officers, and the comrades are experiencing great soul-saving times, and during the previous week about thirty seekers had claimed forgiveness of sins.

The following evening the Colonel lectured in the Albert Hall to a splendid crowd. The Rev. W. Kendall, of the United Church, was present, and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

The Colonel returned to Grand Falls, to conduct the 21st Anniversary services. On Saturday night a Soldiers' meeting was held. Commandant Marsh had previously approached the manager of the Railway Company, who kindly arranged for a special train to bring the Soldiers from Botwood and Bishop's Falls, and quite a good crowd from these Corps were present. During the testimony meeting several comrades spoke, including Captains Oakley and Batten, of Botwood and Peter's Arm Corps respectively. The Colonel gave a forceful address, very definitely outlining the duties of Soldiers to God, The Army, and fallen humanity.

The Sunday Holiness meeting was a time of real inspiration and blessing. The Colonel introduced one or two new choruses. It would be hard to find people who can pick up a chorus more quickly than the comrades here. The Colonel's address aroused a searching of hearts, and many, realizing their shortcomings, renewed their pledges to God.

The afternoon service was well attended. Commandant Marsh read messages of congratulation from former Officers of the Corps. Staff-Captain Cornick led some choruses, and among the speakers were Envoy Eastman, Band-Sergeant Crocker, Bandsman McPherson, Young People's Sergeant-Major Locke and Sister Cooke. The Colonel gave a brief address and told of an Army trophy, who had been won for God through The Army's ministrations.

The splendid new Citadel was again full at night. From the start the Spirit of God was in evidence. Band and Songsters rendered splendid assistance, and in the prayer-meeting one Sister came to the Cross.

On Monday night the Home Leaguers gave a banquet in the Young People's Hall, which was attended by a large number of people. An impromptu program was piloted by Staff-Captain Cornick. With the Colonel's expressions of gratefulness and prayers for the Corps' continued progress and prosperity in soul-saving, the twenty-first Anniversary was brought to a close.

At Corner Brook, Commandant Lodge, the Commanding Officer, had arranged a united Soldiers' meeting for Tuesday night, the comrades of three Corps—Curling, Humbermouth and Corner Brook—being present. It being his initial visit, the Colonel was warmly welcomed by the Commandant and words of greeting were spoken by comrades representing the three Corps. The reading and explanation of the Scriptures were listened to with rapt attention, and when the invitation for consecration was given, eighteen of these splendid fighters, some grown old in the service, many of them young and vigorous in Band uniform and red jerseys, presented themselves at the Altar. Among the number was a man who had been a backslider for many years, and who had evidently come into the meeting for the express purpose of giving himself to God. No one was happier during the scene than the converted wife of the penitent, who threw her arms around him as he arose from his knees.

On Wednesday the Colonel was welcomed at Humbermouth, where the splendid Corps is under the leadership of Adjutant and Mrs. Hewitt. A full house greeted the Colonel, and kind expressions of welcome were accorded him. His address was received by earnest hearts, and one young man came to the Mercy-seat.

On a Freight-Train

On Thursday noon the Campaigners had planned to board the eastbound express back to Deer Lake for the night meeting, but no train was available. Not willing to be defeated, they hurriedly jumped on board a freight train and proceeded on their journey. They were quartered in the little caboose, which hangs on behind. Mr. White, the conductor, a splendid type of Salvationist, and his hardy crew were very kind, especially the cook, who provided the travellers with hot tea and lunch.

The genial Commandant John Oake, Commanding Officer of Deer Lake, had secured the town hall for the lecture. Under the chairmanship of Mr. A. Morey, a profitable time was spent. Many prominent citizens were present.

Next morning, the train being again delayed, the Colonel visited the Amalgamated School and addressed the children. The Army is well represented here by Captain Cecil Pretty, who is a very capable and efficient teacher.

Friday night was spent at Humbermouth again, where the Colonel gave a lecture to a full house. Bandsman George Butler, from Corner Brook Corps, presided over the gathering. Hearty expressions of appreciation came from one and all.

The week-end was spent at Corner Brook; a report of which campaign will appear next week.

The Christ We Love To Remember

FOUR-PAGE ART SECTION

OF THE

EASTER ISSUE OF "THE WAR CRY"

DEPICTING, IN SEVEN SCENES, THE PASSION OF THE SAVIOUR

"A PLACE CALLED GETHSEMANE"

Seasonable Article by the General

Sixteen pages, in two colors throughout, with ten pages of reading matter of enthralling interest to all

PLACE YOUR ORDER RIGHT AWAY

Outstanding Increases on Last Year's Order have been made by

Adjt. Godden, St. Thomas - 1000 up
Adjt. Kitson, Owen Sound - 900 up